BISHOP'S MESSAGE:

EXTRAORDINARY MISSIONARY MONTH

During the Angelus prayer on World Mission Sunday, 22 October 2017, Pope Francis announced that he desired that the whole Church celebrate the Extraordinary Missionary Month in October 2019 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Maximum Illud, an apostolic letter given by Pope Benedict XV on 30 November 1919. Pope Francis asked Cardinal Fernando Filoni, the Prefect of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples and President of the Supreme Assembly of the Pontifical Mission Societies to take care of the preparation for the event. The theme of the event is spelt out in these words: “Baptized and Sent: the Church of Christ on Mission in the World”. The theme “emphasizes that the call to mission is a call rooted in Baptism and addressed to all the baptized. Mission is a ‘being sent forth’ that brings about conversion both in those who are sent and in those who receive their message: in Christ, our life is a mission! We are mission, because we are God’s love poured out, God’s holiness created in his own image. Mission, then, is our own growth in holiness and that of the whole world, beginning with creation (cf. Eph 1: 3-6)” (Francis, Address to the National Directors of the Pontifical Mission Societies, 1 June 2018). The Pope insisted that the Directors of PMS should take Acts of the Apostles as the book for prayer and meditation, to find inspiration of the Holy Spirit and thus they in turn inspire others too.

The Pope by calling us to celebrate the centenary of Maximum Illud, connects it to his own Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium, to promote “missionary outreach” throughout the whole Church as the paradigm for her total activity. Maximum Illud is a very important document on the mission, in which Pope Benedict XV recalls how necessary the holiness of life is to the efficacy of the apostolate. The latter exhorted: “May he who preaches God be a man of God” (Maximum Illud, 30). After the World War I, he asked the European missionaries to have a new approach to mission, not one based on nationalism upheld thus far, which nurtured the idea of European superiority over the peoples then seen as subordinate; instead they should promote local languages rather than the language of the conquerors, and to train and to value indigenous clergy so that ‘one day they will be able to take up the spiritual leadership of their people.’” The missio ad gentes found the true scope of forming the locals to be the missionaries to announce the Good News to their own people.

On 7 September 2017, in his address to the members of executive committee of the Episcopal Conference of Latin America, Pope Francis clarified the purpose of the extraordinary missionary month, that is, to place “the mission of Jesus at the heart of the Church, making it the criterion for measuring the effectiveness of her structures, the results of her labours, the fruitfulness of her ministers, and the joy they awaken. For without joy, we attract no one”. According to the Pope, this month “be a favourable time for prayer, the witness of many saints and martyrs, biblical and theological reflection, catechesis and missionary charity to contribute to evangelizing, first and foremost, the Church, so that having rediscovered the freshness and zeal of the first love for the crucified and risen Lord, she may evangelize the world with credibility and evangelical efficacy” (Francis, Audience with the Participants in the Assembly of the Pontifical Mission Societies, 3 June 2017).

For a real missionary conversion, the Pope insists that “our primary concern is the lived holiness of the missionary disciples. Indeed, to cooperate in the salvation of the world, we need to love the world (cf. Jn 3: 16) and to be ready to give up our lives to serve Christ, the one Saviour of the world. We do not have a product to sell. It has nothing to do with proselytizing; we are not selling a product. We have a life to communicate: God, his divine life, his merciful love, his holiness!” (ibid.).

During this special month, the whole Church celebrates the synod for the Amazon. During this synod, the bishops will pray and reflect on the challenges faced in the evangelization of these South American lands. Amazon is an area which is troubled by unjust exploitation, and while reflecting on the missionary approach to these lands, it will help us to renew our commitment of service to the Gospel of salvation of the men and women living in those lands. It will help the whole Church to have evangelical approach to missionary work.

DBCLC will provide material for our reflection and prayer, taken from the daily reflections given for this month and propose the lives of saints to inspire us. We need to organize concrete activities and prayer for the spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We should inspire children to join the missionary childhood and promote missionary zeal among them. Little children should become the missionaries among their peers by living out the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our activities should touch upon the four dimensions as indicated by Cardinal Filoni:

1. A personal encounter with Jesus Christ alive in His Church: Eucharist, Word of God, personal and community prayer,
2. The witness of the Saints, the Missionary Martyrs, and the Confessors of the Faith, who are unique expressions of the Churches throughout the world,
3. Biblical, catechetical, spiritual and theological formation regarding the missio ad gentes,
4. Missionary charity as a material support for the immense work of evangelization, especially the missio ad gentes and Christian formation in Churches that are most in need.

Based on these dimensions, each parish could organize programmes to awaken in all a strong missionary zeal. The services of the men and women of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life as well as those of the associations and ecclesial movements present in the diocese should be used to inspire our people towards the mission of Christ. Let us join the Universal Church in joyfully celebrating the Extraordinary Missionary Month, October 2019.

✠ Peter Paul Saldanha
Bishop of Mangalore

VIANNEY SUNDAY (AUGUST 4)

On Sunday, August 04, we celebrate the feast of St John Marie Vianney, Patron of Priests engaged in the pastoral ministry. I invite our clergy, religious and faithful to pray very specially for our priests and seminarians, for vocations to the sacred priesthood, for our retired clergy and for those priests who have already gone to their heavenly home.

May I take this occasion to thank all the priests in our diocese who are engaged in the pastoral ministry. I know the dedication and commitment with which you work for our people. May God through the intercession of St John Marie Vianney inspire you to give your best in your priestly ministry.

The Sunday Collection at all the Parish Masses on Vianney Sunday (August 4) is for the Ongoing Formation. Kindly forward it to the Procurator by the end of August 2019.

COMMUNIO INDIA DAY IN MANGALORE DIOCESE August 15, 2019

The Catholic Bishops Conference of India launched Communio India in 2018 with the following purposes: (1) to establish a missionary organization (like Missio/Aid to the Church in Need in Germany) in order to build a culture of sharing and caring, in solidarity with our needy brothers and sisters in our country; (2) to encourage our faithful to pray and help the missions and the missionaries and more importantly, to promote missionary vocations; (3) to encourage and inspire our faithful to be lay missionaries.

Each diocesan Bishop is free to fix an appropriate Sunday/holy day of obligation in his diocese for this purpose. Even though the CCBI has preferred to have Communio India Sunday on 1st December, 2019, in Mangalore Diocese, it will be celebrated on August 15, 2019. Please read the CCBI circular in this issue of Internos for more information and needful action. The Offertory Collection at Masses on August 15 is earmarked for Communio India. As each diocese has to forward the collection thus made to the CCBI Secretariat, please remit the Communio India Collection to the Procurator at the earliest.

ONGOING FORMATION OF PRIESTS

August 12-13, 2019

The ongoing formation sessions for August 12 and 13 will be held at the Pastoral Institute, Bajjodi from 9.00 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.

Theme:

Towards A New Paradigm in Education
Management: New Attitudes and New Strategies

Resource Persons:

Msgr Leslie Moras, Episcopal Vicar, Diocese of Mysore
Rev. Vijay Kumar, Secretary, Mysore Diocese Education Society

The sessions will enlighten on important aspects relating to management of educational apostolate and provide a new way of thinking on various issues affecting the schools, parishes and the diocese. All priests are expected to participate in this ongoing formation.

CCBI CIRCULAR ON
Communio India Sunday

“Love one another as I have loved you” (John 13:34)

To all Archbishops, Bishops, Priests, Deacons, Religious, Catechist and lay Faithful of the Catholic in India (Latin Rite).

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Jesus Christ,

1. Once again we are joyfully celebrating the Communio India Sunday. It is a Sunday to pray for the mission of the church in India and gratefully remember all our missionaries, who work gladly in various parts of our country to proclaim the joy of the Gospel, whether the time is “Favourable or unfavourable” (2 Tim 4; 1-2).
2. To proclaim the good News is the fundamental responsibility of every baptized Christian. In the words of Pope Paul VI, we are called to “bring good news of Jesus into all areas of humanity and through its impact to transform society from within, making it new” (Evangelii Nuntiandi, 18)
3. Through all her ministries, the church in India is trying her best to transmit the joy of the Gospel everywhere, but there are many dioceses / religious congregations / Ecclesial Movements in our country struggling to fulfil their mission due to various socio – economic factors. Those among us whom God has blessed with sufficient material means to meet our needs have the responsibility to reach out in solidarity to those who don’t have the same means. Many of our missionaries in rural and remote areas work with limited facilities; so let’s come forward to help them in the best way possible.
4. The CBCI launched Communio India in 2018 with the following purposes: (1) to establish a missionary organization (like Missio/Aid to the Church in Need in Germany) in order to build a culture of sharing and caring, in solidarity with our needy brothers and sisters in our country; (2) to encourage our faithful to pray and help the missions and the missionaries and more importantly, to promote missionary vocations; (3) to encourage and inspire our faithful to be lay missionaries.

5. It is our earnest desire that Communio India Sunday should be observed faithfully and meaningfully in all the parishes institutions in our country, with proper commentary at Holy Mass, special prayers of the faithful and conscientization regarding our baptismal call to become missionary disciples.
6. We appeal to all our faithful to be generous in sharing their resources to help our brothers and sisters in the remote regions of our country, so that they can experience the love of God through the generosity of Indian Catholics. All our contributions, big or small, would go a long way in supporting the missionary work of the church in India.
7. Awareness regarding Communio India has picked up since its launch in 2018. We appreciate and acknowledge the generous contribution of the people of God to this noble cause. It shows their love for the Church and the Gospel. We earnestly request you not to cease praying continuously for the mission of the Church in India. May Jesus the Good Shepherd guide and help us to carry out His work of evangelization in all earnest.

KANDHAMAL DAY

On August 25, Christians around India will be marking Kandhamal Day, commemorating the 11th anniversary of the worst anti-Christian attacks in India's history, and some of the worst anywhere in the world.

During this brutal invasion on the Christian community, around 393 churches and worship places which belonged to the Adivasi Christians and Dalit Christians were destroyed, around 6,500 houses were destroyed, over 100 people were killed, over 40 women were subjected to rape, molestation and humiliation and several educational, social service and health institutions were destroyed and looted. Over 12,000 children lost their education. More than 56,000 people were forced to flee from Kandhamal. Those who had to flee from Kandhamal, are spread out in different parts of the country today. Many of them cannot come back to their villages since they were told that unless they renounce Christian faith, they would not be allowed to survive in Kandhamal.

Gornath Chalanseth, one of seven Christians jailed for life and now freed on bail by the Supreme Court of India on May 21, 2019, after he came out of jail, greeted his family, then went into a nearby church and shouted his thanksgiving, tears of joy running down his cheeks. He said: "Gradually I found solace in prayer. Prayer gave me peace of mind and I always remained disciplined in the jail," What an expression of faith and prayer!

Let us appreciate the faith of our martyrs in Kandhamal who show us the way to continue living our faith with courage and conviction. Let us pray for the victims of violence and brutality. There are innocent victims still languishing in jail. The pain of the tragedy continues, but the Christian sense of forgiveness abounds. Let us include in our prayerful moments those who indulged in violence, that God may convert their hearts and minds. Pray for peace and harmony in the country.
