BISHOP'S MESSAGE FOR NOVEMBER 2015

I wish you a happy feast of all the Saints and of Rajyothsava of Karnataka on 1 November 2015. On 14 November we will be celebrating the Children's Day. Though the schools hold the celebrations, I wish that the Parish Priests encourage them to attend the mass in the morning to be held at a convenient time for them and offer special prayers for the children. The children need special attention in the parish as they are the hope of the parish as well as the nation. Please organise some special programmes for them. In most of the parishes number of the children has come down drastically. Where there is a single Parish Priest in the parishes the number is average 25 – 30. Hence good attention could be given to this group. Jesus welcomed the children saying - 'do not forbid the children from me' Hence let us also keep the children close to Jesus and the church that He may bless them.

On 27 November 2015 we will be completing one year of the installation of the statue of St John Paul II at the shrine in Bajpe. Ever since devotees are visiting the shrine daily. Fr Felix Noronha is rendering his valuable services at the shrine. The people are coming from distant places in small and big numbers. The confessional services are made available at the place. He holds the prayer service for them. Since this saint had touched the place and prayed for us, we believe that he continues to pray for our Diocese and for all people who visit and pray at the shrine. It is good to hold pilgrimages to this shrine when associations of the parish intend to go on an annual outing. Our Diocese is blessed with 3 Saints – St Joseph Vaz, St John Paul II and St Mary of Jesus Crucified.

The II batch of retreat will take place from 6 evening to 11 noon December 2015. Those who have not made their retreat should attend this retreat in the Seminary. Kindly send your names to the Administrator of the Seminary in November. I would like to remind you that all the Priests of the Diocese are expected to make an annual retreat. The Parish Retreat does not substitute the annual clergy Retreat.

The Holy season of Advent will begin on 29-11-2015. During this season retreats and other spiritual exercises would be held in Parishes to prepare the faithful for the Christmas celebrations. The masses for the sick in their houses to be held during this month. Masses for the sick may be held once in 3 months. It is not necessary that the people of the ward to be present for the mass. The family members may be exhorted to be present for the mass. During the mass the anointing of the sick is to be done. This may give the sick a lot of spiritual strength and consolation in their sickness and advancing age.

On 3 January 2016, the Diocesan Annual Eucharistic procession will be held. On that day please do not hold any programmes or masses in the afternoon specially in Episcopal city, Mangalore City, Suratkal and Mangalore South deaneries. This may facilitate the faithful to attend the Eucharistic procession in large numbers. The mass will take place in Milagres at 3.30 p.m. All the Diocesan and Religious Priests are requested to concelebrate.

I thank all the Parish Priests and the Chaplains of our Diocese to have made lot of efforts to make the mission Sunday a success. The parishioners had taken lot of interest in raising funds for the mission. I thank all of you and invoke God's blessings upon you.

Family the Basic Brick

“In a world filled with challenges to marriage and family life, the Catholic Church is called "to carry out her mission in fidelity, truth and love," Pope Francis said at the Mass opening the world Synod of Bishops on the family. In his homily, Pope Francis asked people to pray that the synod would show the world "how the experience of marriage and family is rich and humanly fulfilling”

It’s primeval yet very much in vogue seeking a connection with the other by talking about the family. Who’s in your family? What do they do? From strangers meeting on trains and planes to employees and employers checking each other out, this remains a key rite in the passage to fellowship. Social media is also awash with pictures of babies, mummies, daddies.....

We cannot call any society healthy when it does not leave real room for family life. We cannot think that a society has a future when it fails to pass laws capable of protecting families and ensuring their basic needs, especially those of families just starting out.

Society has existed on certain basic principles. The first and most important unit of society has been the family. The family is the basic brick that nations are made of, races are made of, and religious organizations are made of. .

You know what God loves most? To knock on the door of families and to find the families who love each other – families who bring up their children to grow and to move forward. Who create, who develop a society of truth, goodness and beauty. God made man and woman to complement each other, to love and to be loved, and to see their love bear fruit in children.

One can describe the family as “a factory of hope”, each one with divine citizenship, somber reflections – that many families “carry a cross” suffer indignities and separate – with similar wit. Families face many difficulties, Families fight. And sometimes plates fly, and sometimes kids get knocked on the head. And let’s not even talk about mothers-in-law.

There is no perfect family. We have no perfect parents, we are not perfect, do not get married to a perfect person, neither do we have perfect children. We have complaints about each other. We are disappointed by one another. Therefore, there is no healthy marriage or healthy family without the exercise of forgiveness.

Forgiveness is vital to our emotional health and spiritual survival. Without forgiveness the family becomes a theater of conflict and a bastion of grievances. Without forgiveness the family becomes sick.

Forgiveness is the sterilization of the soul, cleansing the mind and the liberation of the heart. Anyone who does not forgive has no peace of soul and communion with God. Pain is a poison that intoxicates and kills. Maintaining a wound of the heart is a self-destructive action. It is an autophagy.

He who does not forgive sickens physically, emotionally and spiritually. That is why the family must be a place of life and not of death; an enclave of cure not of disease; a stage of forgiveness and not of guilt. Forgiveness brings joy where sorrow produced pain; and healing, where pain caused disease.

Stress must be laid on the importance of kind “little gestures” that go a long way in the family. They get lost amid all the other things we do, yet they do make each day different. They are the quiet things done by mothers and grandmothers, by fathers and grandfathers, by children and siblings

These are some things that we need to leave unspoilt. Beauty is normally found in things that are odd and imperfect - they are much more interesting. A situation must never arise where the family is unhappy only because of a lack of kind “little gestures” leading forgiveness and family bonding.

Family bonding is very important for a number of reasons. One reason is that today, both parents often work and the kids are involved in many different activities such as sports, clubs and hanging out with friends. The old concepts of what a family should be have been thrown out the window. It used to be that one parent stayed home, the children saw their parents before and after school, and the whole family sat down to dinner EVERY night, talking about their day, talking to each other about what is going on in their lives. Today, you would be lucky if you see each other more than an hour a day and family dinner hardly ever happens at all.

To keep in touch with your family, whether it knows what activities your kids are involved in, parents telling their children about their day, etc., it is important that you as a family spend some quality time together. Sure, you may have busy schedules, but you all can sit down at least once a week to touch base, be together, and let each other know there is love in the family still. All too often, no one talks to others in the family or spends any time together and it seems a bunch of strangers are living together. Do you really want your kids growing up this way, and passing these bad family traits down to their family and kids?

Family time doesn't have to be a chore, but it does have to be scheduled and you all have to make a commitment to be there every time. If you as a parent tell your friends that you want to spend more time with your family, they better understand, or they aren't really the friends you thought them to be. While your kids may buck at the idea at first, if they know it is a fun time to spend together, they will be more and more eager to make sure they are there too.

When the ability to acknowledge what is horrifically wrong is lost between or among the family members, then it becomes possible for the family member(s) to justify virtually anything in order to further a larger cause. The idea of a minimum standard of humanity breaks down not because of the universality of evil, but because of a perverse desire to win an argument between or among family members, no matter what the cost. This is the real danger of the word games that are being played between or among family members.

Where does one draw the line? Why does it become possible for a family member to be so repelled by something that they condemn their family unequivocally without qualification or sly justification avoiding the usual "but what about such and such done by the other side in the past", and refraining from keeping a cunning and calculating silence. Or is it that there is now no such line that we can take for granted, and that everything will necessary become subject to a process of competitive desensitization? These are relevant questions in today's family. In such circumstances - The church must encourage families and defend faithful love, the sacredness of every human life and "the unity and indissolubility" of marriage.

The family is a place of discernment, where we learn to recognize God's plan for our lives and to embrace it with trust. It is a place of gratuitousness, of discreet fraternal presence and solidarity, a place where we learn to step out of ourselves and accept others, to forgive and to be forgiven. Every family is always a light, however faint, amid the darkness of this world.

We have a great legacy but one, which is increasingly diminishing, and one fine day we will wake up and see the damage we have done. It is already too late. While there must be enough noise about the problems in the family, we cannot ignore the soul of the family. It's heritage which chronicles the DNA of a family. To allow that DNA to disappear would be the biggest disservice we can do to the family. The family is not an outdated model, and Catholics should defend it from the sins that call into question and often destroy the traditional family.
